

DUNK THE BISCUIT IN THE CUPPA

Are you up for the challenge of dunking your favourite biscuit, while blindfolded?

Once the cuppa poster is up on a wall, cut out your biscuits and stick a little bit of blu tack on the back of each. Players should write their initials in the middle of their chosen biccy. Then, get the blindfold on and see if you can place your biscuit in the tea. Whoever's closest wins! Who will be the custard cream of the crop?

Suggested £2 donation for every attempt

All donations will go to Macmillan, to help support even more people living with cancer.
